

BIG SANDY NEWS.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1893.

St. Valentine's day next Tuesday. Spencer and two clerks are always busy.

Best flour at Spencers for the least money.

Only 25¢ for barrel salt at Bor- Stewarts.

Everybody seems to have a dull trade but Spencers.

G. W. Castle went to Wash- ington on week.

A new stock of Jewelry received this week at Conley's.

W. J. Frashier expects to be postmaster at Fort Gay.

Go to Frank Yates for the most goods for the least money.

M. Stewart was down the hill this week on business.

Cates is the place for you to trade. Honest treatment, honest goods.

Billie Maynard, of the Falls of Tug, will remove to Louisville.

It is the only reliable place to order for clothing, or books & stationery.

That you please, but Spencers is the cheapest place in Lou- 15.

otypes and photos enlarged at Jones' Photo gallery. Also, framing.

Yates sells flour 25¢ cheap- er barrel than any other store down.

Mrs. Lena Meyers has returned from a trip of several weeks to West Ky.

Look at Borders & Stewart's catalogues of Spring outings before spring comes.

Our sell your eggs, butter, po- tatoes and other produce until you can get a price.

L. Walter went to Louisville to enter upon a course in study of medicine.

Who left umbrellas at Photograph gallery can have them for them.

No oil house on company's land will be open in a day or two.

Those want a watch or case now come to buy it. Conley's is giving special prices this month.

The News office is turning out a great deal of job work at absolute lowest prices in the market.

J. G. W. Trotter was on Tues- day elect Clerk of the Town offices, vice A. L. Garber resign-

J. M. Elam writes in that a larger school than ever at

He has been very successful.

Anne Powers, who has resided here for several weeks, yesterday for her home in Kan-c.

C. Hiner and family are in this week, where he is as- sing Rev. Madley in a revival meeting.

S. Hughes, of Central City, made a combined business and pleasure trip to Louis last Friday, returning Saturday.

As we were having warm weather last week the mercury dropped to fifty degrees below the northwest.

Allison, a colored girl in this place, took poison at her last Tuesday and died.

She was brought here for inment.

You can get to the

eggs, butter, bacon

unless you have to buy it,

you should never be com-

ed.

Pennsylvania Buck Wheat Flour, pure maple syrup, genuine French beans, best selected California soap nuts, best canned fruits, always good at Spencers.

The price of bacon and hams is already almost literally "out of the poor man." It is predicted that the retail price will go down 25¢ before many weeks.

W. F. Feiley died a few days ago at the home of Dan Vinson, seven miles above here, of consumption.

He was sold to six feet and nine inches, and weighed about and unburdened.

Mrs. Jay H. Northrup and daughter Emma arrived home from New York this week. Col. Northrup has visited H. W. Ferguson's residence, and the family is moving into it.

We are all glad to have them with us.

Many of our young folks were pleasantly entertained by

Belle Burgess on last Friday.

Legionary was the prin-

ceps, though the refreshments in for an important interest.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Hustle Your Specimens To Chicago and Get a Big Ad. Free.

Col. M. H. Crump, of Bowling Green, who has charge of the mineral and forestry exhibit of Kentucky at the World's Fair, was in Louisville this week, arranging for exhibits from this section.

The plan adopted for this branch of the Kentucky exhibit is pronounced one of the most complete and attractive plans which will be seen at the Fair. It is too elaborate to give in detail here. The space allotted to the minerals is 23' 6" feet, and it will be searched with polished coal, the names of the various contributors appearing in bold relief upon it. There are twelve varieties of coal in Kentucky and these will all be represented, and every item of importance in connection with each variety will be on it. Coal will be received in blocks of two feet square the height of the vein, and it will be exhibited with the name of the owner, the exact location, and all the authentic facts which may be furnished with it. This will enable a man having good coal to advertise the fact to the world in the most effective manner ever presented to our people. No one who is alive to his interests will let this opportunity go by unimproved. All you have to do is to get out the coal and deliver it at the nearest shipping point, labeled with a tag which the BIG SANDY NEWS will furnish you for the asking. The freight will be paid by the World's Fair Commission.

Specimens of stones suitable for building purposes are wanted in cubes of one foot face, each side dressed in a different style.

The family were taken to John B. Goff's a short distance away, a physician summoned, and it was found that the oldest boy was badly burned and could live but a short time.

This morning the remains of the youngest was found in the basement. At 1:30 o'clock the oldest boy died and will be buried tomorrow in the grave with his younger brother.

Mr. Young was burned very badly but the doctor thinks not fatal.

Mr. Young married J. B. Goff's oldest daughter and is the father of six children. He is an honest, intelligent business man and his loss is mourned throughout the surrounding country.

(This from K. F. Wellman, No- man W. Va.)

Burned Alive.

NOLAN, W. VA., Feb. 3d.—The residence of Mr. Mike Young, of White Post, Ky., was burned at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The fire was under full headway when first discovered by Mr. Young.

There were four children, the oldest ten years of age, sleeping in the second story. When Mr. Young discovered the fire he made a rush for the children and succeeded in getting two little girls started down the stairs. By this time the flames were reaching the room and the smoke so blinded him that he thought he had them all out. As he reached the bottom, his oldest boy came rushing past him with his clothes on fire. They then discovered that there was one child yet in the burning building but the fire had made such headway that it was found impossible to save the child. By this time help had arrived and every effort was made to rescue the child but of no avail. He was burned alive in the flames.

The family were taken to John B. Goff's a short distance away, a physician summoned, and it was found that the oldest boy was badly burned and could live but a short time.

This morning the remains of the youngest was found in the basement. At 1:30 o'clock the oldest boy died and will be buried tomorrow in the grave with his younger brother.

Mr. Young was burned very badly but the doctor thinks not fatal.

Mr. Young married J. B. Goff's oldest daughter and is the father of six children. He is an honest, intelligent business man and his loss is mourned throughout the surrounding country.

For the timber exhibit blocks three feet long the size of the tree are wanted, of all the various kinds of large timber. These will be shown to the best advantage by showing the wood, finished in all the different ways possible. This also will bear name and address of owner.

Timber will also be exhibited in the most advantageous manner.

Over a million copies of a catalogue will be issued containing the names and addresses of every person sending specimens. Large and accurate maps prepared by the State geologists will be in the catalogues so arranged that any stranger can locate your property about as well as though he were on the ground.

We hope the people of the Sandy Valley will realize the importance of sending specimens at once. Remember that the time is short and you must not delay. They should be mailed by the first week in March, at the outside. The wealthy owners of property, and especially the foreign owners, will be sending specimens. Some are already on the road. But we want some of those native owners of good properties, who need to make them known, to be represented. Any information wanted will be cheerfully furnished by the BIG SANDY NEWS or by Col. Crump, whose address was given in the outset.

A Negro Killed by a Little Girl.

Cizzie Harvey, little nineteen-year-old daughter of Wm. Harvey, who lives about nine miles up Tug river, accidentally shot and killed George Turner, a 20-year-old colored man employed about the place. It occurred yesterday morning as Turner was about to start out to work. The children were accustomed to playing with his two negroes, which were kept empty. The night before the incident, however, he had placed one cartridge in one of the revolvers and laid it on the little girl. The little girl got it and playfully pointing it at him, said she would shoot him. She pulled the trigger and sent a ball into his forehead, killing him instantly.

Village Quick Relief. Hungry people, call for it. Call at M. B. S. Cooksey's to get it.

Frank Yates does, and will sell you flour 25 to 50¢ less per barrel than any other grocer in town. Guaranteed the same grade of money refunded.

Why is it that people walk and crowd through mud to get there because he has a brand new stock and buys and sells strictly for cash. M. B. See General Manager.

Those desiring the best exposition of the International Sunday School lessons now have a rare opportunity at a limited number of Pohoreba's Select Notes, the best published. Some extra ones were sent to Mr. E. T. Burns through mistake and he offers them at $1 each, which is less than they cost him. Don't miss the chance.

It is to be hoped that the proper authorities will see to it that the law forbidding dogs running at large is strictly enforced. We saw one tear-tack tear off a gate in the fence, and the efforts to break into a garden.

Planting season will soon be here, but early to raise the crisp lettuce, the bright radish and the fragrant onion. We be fatigued porters of high and low degree are allowed to roam at will through the town. Put them up, or whip set the multitude and turn the whole fraternity dogs loose upon the streets.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Govt Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

FATHER AND FRIEND.

Beautiful Story of the Rise of Hubert Herkomer.

Together They Traveled to Munich Where the Older Man Coached and Served as Model — Success After a Fierce Struggle.

That is a beautiful story of the relations between Hubert Herkomer and his father recently given to the public in a German periodical. When the father held the infant in his arms he said: "This boy shall one day be my best friend, and he shall be an artist." Never was wiser or prophetic more completely fulfilled. When the boy had attained his second year the father, dissatisfied with the state of things in his own country after the great shipwreck of the revolution, decided to go to America. Here he worked at his trade, while his wife contributed to the maintenance of the little family by giving music lessons. After six years they went to Sonnenland, where they had a very hard and terrible trial, struggling with the most adverse circumstances. Meanwhile the boy's musical gifts were developing, and he took part in the singing and music lessons and played duets with the pupils. His attendance at a day school was soon cut short by illness. After his recovery he was sent to a drawing school, and to this day he thinks with scorn and bitterness contempt of the method of instruction there. Meanwhile his father received an order from America, and he decided to go to Munich to execute the work. The son was to accompany him, in order to pursue his studies at the famous academy. Full of hope, the father and son set out on their journey and at Munich their domestic arrangements corresponded with the poverty, because the workshop had also to serve his living expenses and best. The boy made good progress at the academy, but he had a passionate desire to draw from the living model, and to help him out of the father, in the early morning, in the pauses between cooking and other household duties, would stand as

—

Ruth Morgan, one of the most noted outlaws and desperadoes in the mountains, was shot and instantly killed in a disorderly house near Hubbard Springs, Va. Morgan had a record second to none in this section of fends. It was his custom to cut a notch on the stock of his Winchester every time he killed a man, and the last count showed seventeen notches.

The grand Jury of Boyd county has stirred the "upper ten" society of Cynthiaville up considerably by indicting twenty of the leading ladies for participating in games of piste at which prizes are given, at which prizes are given. If there is a town between Pittsburg and Cincinnati that needs a dose or two of reform it is Cynthiaville, but if the G. J. would turn its attention to some of the bawdy houses and lewd women and tough whisky dives of that city it would reflect much more credit upon it and suppress evils that are a great deal worse than predicated.

—

The grand Jury of Boyd county has stirred the "upper ten" society of Cynthiaville up considerably by indicting twenty of the leading ladies for participating in games of piste at which prizes are given, at which prizes are given. If there is a town between Pittsburg and Cincinnati that needs a dose or two of reform it is Cynthiaville, but if the G. J. would turn its attention to some of the bawdy houses and lewd women and tough whisky dives of that city it would reflect much more credit upon it and suppress evils that are a great deal worse than predicated.

—

Aaron Lane and Jack Neuman, for robbing the store of Wm. Crum, get each a free pass to Frankfort, where they will spend one year as the guests of the state. Jim Neuman one of their pals, goes free.

—

The Johnson county grand jury returned 133 indictments. In Ingo county 18 were found.

—

Hon. John P. Salyers of Morgan county will be a candidate for Secretary of the United States Senate if that body is organized by the Democrats.

—

The Wayne county grand jury found two dozen indictments against the Phoenix Powder Mill Company, charging it with being a public nuisance.

—

FALLSBURG, KY.

The "bop" given at the residence of F. M. Boldman last Friday night was quite a treat for all who attended same, and the most delicious part of enjoyment was the whole repeat which was served by Wm. Cooksey and Bro. at their lunch stand.

The literary society that was organized in school at this place received much credit upon the school, as a good selection of officers were chosen, from different parts of the county, and we may say that, seemingly no other literary society at this place was ever more interesting.

Our town seems on a boom just now as the demand for houses, except that of any time previous once, quite a number of people would move here this season if houses could be obtained.

So much good so good.

Two marriages in our town,

since my last came to light, in form of a double wedding which